Date issued: 6/12/2019

Australian Draft Standard AS3564.1:2019 open for public comment

VACC submitted a proposal earlier this year to update AS 3564.1:1988 on behalf of its Automatic Transmission Specialist members.

To ensure proper representation of industry both VACC and the newly established Australasian ATRA Chapter nominated to sit on the technical committee CS-078.

Please take the time to review the draft standard and ensure it is fit for purpose.

Public Comment is invited for:

DR AS 3564.1:2019, Automotive repairs — Terminology, Part 1: Automatic Transmission

Public Comment period:

Start date: 06 December 2019

Close date: 07 February 2020

To make Public Comment through the Connect, follow the steps below:

- Please go to <https://connect.standards.org.au/#/login> and select 'Public Access – Comment on Draft Standard'. Locate the Draft in the list.
- Click on 'Make a comment' on the right hand side of the page in line with the title of the Draft in the list.
- You should then come to the 'Single Sign On' page to login. However as you will not have a Public User Profile, you can create that by selecting 'Register'. <https://sso.standards.org.au/idp/startSSO.ping?PartnerSpId=sapc&usertype=orcuser&entityID=sapc&returnIDParam=idp>
- Once the login is created you should be taken to the Public Comment page for that Draft or may need to select it again from the list.
- Click on 'New Comment' and the steps are all outlined in that section.

Yours sincerely
