AS 3564.1.2020 - Automotive Repairs - Terminology, Part 1 Automatic Transmission

Dear member

Please be advised, Standards Australia has now published AS 3564.1.2020 Automotive Repairs - Terminology, Part 1 Automatic Transmission. This standard supersedes AS 3564.1.1988.

The VACC automatic transmission committee were instrumental in submitting a proposal calling for a review and update of the standard due to significant changes in technology and repair practices.

The Standards Committee CS-078 were tasked with the review and drafting of the updated standard which included members of the ATRA Australasian Chapter as well as other industry stakeholder groups.

VACC would like to thank all members who submitted feedback during the public consultation period.
