
COVID-19 Mandatory Vaccinations in the workplace

Dear Member

VACC has received a high volume of calls relating to Mandatory Vaccinations \(Workers\) Directions under Public Health and Wellbeing Act 2008 (Vic).

In response to unprecedented demand, VACC is hosting a second webinar for members on COVID-19 Vaccinations in the workplace on

Friday, 15 October 2021

11am – 12pm

This webinar will be presented by Daniel Hodges, VACC Executive Manager – Workplace Relations and OHSE and will focus on the following areas:

- Who do the Directions apply to?
- What do employers need to do?
- What are the exceptions to the Directions?
- What if employees refuse to comply?
- Other key considerations and recommendations

Please register by clicking the link below. Please register early as places are strictly limited.

Register Now

Please note, there will be an opportunity for questions at the end of the presentation, however it would be greatly appreciated if questions can be submitted beforehand. There is a text box available for questions when you register.

We hope you will join us.

Dr Imogen Reid

Lead, Strategy and Policy

Industry Divisions, Business and Consumer Affairs and Research