

VACC Industry Forum Reminder

Wednesday 5 October 2016

Dear Member

Just a friendly reminder regarding the upcoming industry forum held at VACC on Wednesday, 5 October starting at 6.30pm.

The Automotive industry is on the cusp of unprecedented change as the race towards fully autonomous vehicles dominates discussions around the globe. We have a great line up of speakers and exhibitors lined up for you so I'm sure you'll find it very informative.

If you haven't already, please register your attendance to guarantee your spot.

Please note there was an issue with the form attached to bulletin 30/16 so we may not have received your registration.

As places are limited, please be sure to RSVP by 30 September to secure your place.
