Dear Members

Chain of Responsibility laws, mandated by the National Heavy Vehicle Regulator (NHVR) will come into effect on 1 October 2018, and it's important you are prepared.

The Heavy Vehicle National Law (HVNL) will be modified to ensure each participant in the heavy vehicle transport supply chain is responsible for the safety of their transport activities. Its function is to minimise harm or loss by ensuring supply chain participants play their part by implementing safe business practices.

Members are invited to attend this important seminar with Simone Reinertsen, Stakeholder Specialist, NHVR.

Simone will step through the key aspects of the new legislation and be available to answer your questions.
