Police Searching for Missing Man

Dear Member

The Victoria Police missing person's squad are conducting an investigation into the disappearance of Anthony Thomas De Vito. They are seeking any information tending to identify the whereabouts of Anthony or a vehicle of particular interest.

Neither Anthony Thomas De Vito or vehicle 'UFI052' have been seen since the late evening of 04/05/2016.

Images of Anthony and the vehicle are provided below:

Anthony Thomas DE VITO was believed to be using a 2001 'Holden' 'VX' 'Commodore' sedan Silver (Victorian vehicle registration of 'UFI052'), (Similar to image above).

Vehicle 'UFI052' had the following distinctive features:

- Original 'Wheel Trims', which have been partially spray painted black.
- Minor damage (dint / scratch) to a panel near the wheel arch on the front 'passenger' side.
- Holder for an 'eTag', which is affixed to the top section of the inside of the front windscreen.
- 'Rosary Beads', hanging from the front 'rear-view' mirror.
- Residue from glue, which is on centre of the front 'dashboard'.

The smallest piece of information may assist, and any information is appreciated, and all information will be treated with strict confidentiality

Please contact the below investigators if you have any information.
