Double time and a half for salespersons means:

- If more than half a day is worked, half of the salesperson's weekly rate of pay calculated as follows:
Weekly wage rate is $837.40, they get an additional $251.22 (which is $837.40 divided by 5 = $167.48 x 1.5)
- If half a day or less is worked, one quarter of the salesperson's weekly rate of pay calculated as follows:
Weekly wage rate is $837.40 they get an additional $125.61 (which is half of $251.22)

Clerks Private Sector Award 2010

Employees covered by this award will also be entitled to double time and a half for working on Friday, 28 September 2018.

An employee required to work on a public holiday is entitled to not less than four hours pay at penalty rates provided the employee is available to work for four hours.

Where a substitute public holiday is mutually agreed in a particular locality

Although Friday 28 September 2018 has been gazetted as a public holiday across Victoria, an employer and an employee/s covered by either the Vehicle Manufacturing, Repair, Services and Retail Award 2010 or the Clerks Private Sector Award 2010, can mutually agree to a substitute day being observed in a particular locality.

Where a substitute day is agreed the following pay arrangements apply:

- a) Work on a public holiday or a substituted day must be paid at double time and half, but not both.
- b) Where both a public holiday and substitute day are worked, public holiday penalties are payable for only one of those days at the election of the employee.
